COMMUNITY HOUSING

welcome.

Welcome to Servants Community Housing

Servants Community Housing has been operating affordable accommodation and safe housing for those on low incomes for over a quarter of a century.

Our passion is built around offering a structure in which vulnerable individuals—many of whom suffer from long-term mental illnesses—can live in relative comfort.

All too often we find our residents have been afforded little dignity or respect in their lives prior to being housed by Servants. Perhaps they have been homeless, they may have left a psychatric ward for the first time, experienced a relationship breakdown, loss of employment, substance issues…

Residents find a safe and secure place with Servants and tend to stay with us for many years, enjoying a strong connectedness and sense of community. That's because our model of housing is breathtakingly simple, founded on the belief that each individual is worthwhile.

Please join us on the journey as we seek to offer respect, dignity and hope to some of the most vulnerable members of our society.

Amanda Donohoe
CEO
Servants Community Housing

"The role of Servants within our community cannot be overestimated. Their care of some of our most vulnerable individuals allows many people to live successfully within the community."

— Councillor Nicholas Tragas, Boroondara Mayor

"Our programme is greatly enhanced by partnering with Servants to develop creative projects of great benefit to our students, and we expect to share in a variety of mutually beneficial projects long into the future."

— Mark Williams, Head of Social Services, Scotch College

"I attempt to fit law school around my life of cooking, cleaning and counseling. Only occasionally do I miss the days when my doorbell didn't ring at 3am, but I can't think of where I'd rather be."

— Grace Donohoe, On-site Manager
